Europe Region WAGGGS Call for Volunteers 2017-2019

December 2016

Do you want to make a difference to the lives of millions of young people in Europe who can benefit from the Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting movement? Do you have experience, skills, passion and time to help Europe Region and our Member Organizations grow and deliver of our triennial strategy approved at the 15th European Guide Conference in 2016?

If so, Europe Region WAGGGS needs you!

Why volunteer with us?

Volunteering with us you can:

- enhance your skills and experience in an international setting
- learn best practices and be in a process of continued learning
- improve your employability and educational prospects

Who is eligible?

We welcome volunteers who are active members of a WAGGGS Member Organization (SAGNO, WAGGGS only or WAGGGS accepting boys). In the case of SAGNOS, we also welcome their male members of WOSM in non-governance related roles where there is no conflict of interest. You may apply for more than one role and there is no limit to the number of applicants that a Member Organization approves.

Volunteering roles are open to all who meet the specific criteria outlined in the role descriptions regardless of origin, skin colour, gender, gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, religious belief, health, or socio-economic background.

Regional volunteers who have been part of the 2014-2016 volunteer groups in the Europe Region are also welcome to respond to this call. If you would like to continue to offer your services to the Region, are interested in any of the roles available and believe you have the required skills and experience, we would love to hear from you!

We particularly encourage young women under thirty to put forward their applications, especially when interested in representing WAGGGS externally at European and international level. This is in line with WAGGGS vision and participants should also be aware that this is sometimes a requirement of the funding we receive.

A candidate would not be considered eligible if according to a Member Organization or WAGGGS, there is evidence that they have breached WAGGGS Constitution, By-Laws, brought the Girl Guide/ Girl Scout Movement into disrepute or otherwise caused harm to the name and/ or goodwill of the Girl Guide/ Girl Scout Movement.

What skills and knowledge do I need?

We have identified the following desired skills, competences and knowledge that you will need to demonstrate on your application form in order to be considered for any role:

- Commitment to WAGGGS and our mission and vision
- Commitment to embrace WAGGGS' organisational values in ways of work and behaviours (Member-driven, Professional, Inclusive, Empowering, Brave and Transparent).
- Knowledge of WAGGGS and willingness to learn more
- Good working knowledge of English. While, not a criteria, we also very much welcome and need French speakers
- Ability to work in an intercultural context
- Commitment to working in partnership with staff and other volunteers
- Commitment to continual improvement of own performance and that of a team
- Positive, open-minded attitude
- Ability to be self- motivated and work independently as well as in a team
- Ability to commit time to the work and meet agreed deadlines (this will vary depending on the role and we are committed to offering flexible opportunities)
- Ability to travel (unless otherwise stated)

For all lead volunteer positions:

- Experience of leading teams of volunteers and working in partnership with staff
- Structured approach and experience coordinating projects
- Ability to make strategic decisions
- Experience of supervising the work of others, including performance management
- interest in the area but not necessarily content expert

Due to the virtual nature of most of the work, all applicants should have access to technology (e.g. Skype)

How will the recruitment and selection process work?

Application is through on-line forms which can be found by following the link alongside the details of each role. Please note that application forms are provided in English only, as this is the working language of all volunteer groups. Applications should be submitted by 1700 CET time on Tuesday 31 January 2017.

All data collected in the recruitment will be treated as confidential and only disclosed to those who need it to make decisions about selection and allocation of volunteers in the work of the Europe Region- primarily the Europe Committee and staff partners.

Selection will take place during February 2017 by Europe Region Committee members and staff partners responsible for the relevant project or event. The final decision on all roles will be taken at the Europe Region Committee meeting at the beginning of March 2017 and all applicants, including those that were not successful on this occasion, will be notified immediately after the meeting. Member Organizations will be asked to approve the selection of applicants before they are formally accepted.

Selected volunteers will be invited to attend an induction meeting scheduled to take place during the second quarter of 2017 and all expenses will be covered by the Europe Region as outlined in our expense policy.

What roles are available?

We have a number of roles available in project based working groups, event planning teams and MO support groups. Below is a brief description of each role, skills and experience needed and a link to the on-line application form. Upon selection, we will provide you with more detailed information on the scope of the work including Terms of Reference and you will have the opportunity to contribute to the overall strategy, team ways of work and specific responsibilities you will focus on.

The majority of roles will involve working in partnership with a member of the Europe Committee and WAGGGS staff with relevant expertise. Unless otherwise stated, volunteers will be in these roles for the course of the 2017-2019 triennium.
